

Mariann Casale

February 10, 1953 - July 11, 2019

No obituary found for this tribute.

Cemetery Details

Greenwood Cemetery

25th Street & 5th Avenue
Greenwood Cemetery, NY

Previous Events

Visitation

JUL 14. 2:00 PM - 4:30 PM (ET)

John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc.
28 Eltingville Blvd
Staten Island, NY 10312

Visitation

JUL 14. 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM (ET)

John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals Inc
28 Eltingville Blvd
Staten Island, NY 10312

Visitation

JUL 15. 2:00 PM - 4:30 PM (ET)

John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals Inc
28 Eltingville Blvd
Staten Island, NY 10312

Visitation

JUL 15. 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM (ET)

John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals Inc
28 Eltingville Blvd
Staten Island, NY 10312

Funeral Mass

JUL 16. 10:00 AM (ET)

Our Lady Star Of The Sea Church
5411 Amboy Rd
Staten Island, NY 10312

Tribute Wall

“ Missing you always <3

Cristina - June 09, 2025 at 09:18 PM

“ Eulogy for our Beloved Grammy by Cristina

Thank you all for gathering today for our Mariann Casale. She was an amazing Wife, Mother, Grammy, Sister and Friend.

I believe the stars crossed and soulmates came together when my father and Mariann met. The light that shined on their faces and in their hearts from that day forward was beautiful. There was nothing they wouldn't do for each other. There was no day they would spend apart, and that's just how they liked it.

Mariann loved our family. She told me many times we are what keeps her going. She accepted us as her own and there is nothing she wouldn't do for us. She loved us deeply and just when we thought she couldn't love any harder she became GRAMMY. She devoted her life to her grandchildren Chiarra, Blake, Isabella, Adrianna, Gennaro and Jonathan. She came to every event, insisted on hosting major holidays (soup to nuts), she cheered at many dance recitals, competitions and sports events. She wouldn't miss it for the world. She was hands on in every way she could. Fun at Grammy and Pop Pop's house for the kids included but not limited to play doh (which mommy bans), baking, painting and really any craft that their little hearts desired.

Mariann had the biggest heart, she never cared for material things. She could have had whatever she wanted and all she wanted was to see a smile on all of our faces. That brought her the most joy.

Mariann faced many challenges when she was diagnosed with cancer. She accepted it and marched on with treatment. She was determined to win. After chemo, radiation and many challenges she never, ever complained. She kept up with the pace of her very busy life, caring for and loving her dear husband and all of us. The amount of courage and bravery that our lovely little lady showed is that of a warrior and the reward was remission.

Mariann and my father had retirement goals that some dream of. They made plans to move to Florida, a beautiful town surrounded by friends and family called Naples. They searched for homes and finally found the perfect place in Island walk. Mariann made a beautiful house a loving home. She especially loved sitting out on the lanai overlooking the lake. I never saw her more peaceful and happy.

When the cancer returned Mariann faced it again with the same bravery and strength. She knew that this was another battle and she would face it head on. She fought, she fought until the last minutes of her life. I never like to say that she lost her battle to cancer. She is a warrior of this disease that was called to heaven. For more than a decade she bravely fought her way through the years for us. She is the one strongest women that we know. She always felt she was lucky to have us. I told her we were the lucky ones. A beautiful soul at peace, no longer suffering. A lovely woman with an amazing heart spending eternity in heaven. Our Angel....Until we meet again. We love you dearly and will miss you forever. We will never forget the love you gave us and the lessons you taught. Your spirit will always be alive through us as we will carry you in our hearts for the rest of our days.

Cristina - June 09, 2025 at 09:17 PM

“ Mariann Casale

October 04, 2023 at 06:13 PM

“ Beautiful Heart Bouquet was purchased for the family of Mariann Casale. ”

July 14, 2019 at 10:30 AM