“ The Figueroa family extends its condolences to the Sollitto family, and joins them in feeling profound sadness on the passing of our dear Aunt Marie.

We remember Aunt Marie for her warm embrace of us, her family in Puerto Rico; for her many visits with us when we were in Washington DC or overseas; for her generous and loving hospitality when the family would visit her at home in Brooklyn, where she would cook up a storm or treat us to her favorite Italian restaurants in Marine Park. We remember, and will miss, her sharp wit and sense of humor, which always had us rolling on the floor with laughter. And while it's clear that she didn't suffer fools gladly, she had a heart of gold that showered us with love, kindness and generosity always.

Our faith assures us that she is now at God's side, reunited with Uncle Louis and all those she loved who predeceased her. Our hearts are broken, but we are grateful to have shared so many precious moments with her, and we take comfort in the knowledge that she is resting in peace and love.

“ I was deeply saddened to hear about the passing of Marie. I will always cherish the time I spent with Marie both at work and during our retirement when we would meet at Aruther Avenue for lunch with Lisa, Beth and Lorraine. As a Regional Coordinator, Marie had the expertise in all areas of food service, employee management and passion for serving students that made her truly special. Please accept my deepest condolences during this difficult time. Sincerely,
Dianne Frankel

“ I had the honor and pleasure of working with Marie at the Office of Food and Nutrition Services for most of my 33 year career. She was a great mentor, colleague and friend. I shared her love of travel and Puerto Rico. I know she had a loving family and wished the best for the people she held close to her. I especially remember he speaking so highly of her extended family who she loved to travel with.
