

Marie A. Florio

June 22, 1935 - July 10, 2025

Marie A. Florio, 90, of Staten Island, New York, passed away peacefully surrounded by loved ones on July 10, 2025. Born on June 22, 1935 in New York City, Marie lived the majority of her life in her familial home in Annadale amongst extended family.

Marie worked for Western Electric at 222 Broadway in NYC and then for AT&T in Somerset NJ until her retirement in the mid 90s. Marie engaged in many creative endeavors throughout her life including sewing, knitting, crocheting, crafting, cooking, baking, and performing home improvement projects. She was an avid NY Yankees fan and favored the music of Engelbert Humperdinck.

A daughter, sister, sister-in-law, aunt, great aunt, cousin, and friend, Marie will always be remembered for her abundantly caring nature. She was forever there for everyone she knew, never taking but always giving, never looking for anything in return. She was like a second mother to her sister Angie's children and to her great niece, Tiana. She was loved by all whose lives she touched.

Marie is survived by her sister Angela, niece Teresa Edelglass & husband Scott, nephew Robert Zerilli & wife Amy, nephew Charles Zerilli, great niece Tiana Zerilli, & sister-in-law Marion Florio and family.

“ Our “Aunt” Marie,

Devoted to her Family, generous to a fault, heartfelt love, helpful, kind, steadfast & much, much more.

Her look of joy & love enveloped you as you arrived at her front door for a special visit. Hugs & smiles to see you. Her welcoming charm warmed your heart & her excitement engulfed your being.

Her holiday dinners were events, created it seemed, to feed the multitudes. But her enormous efforts, always with a radiant smile, were all for you. Her dinner table set meticulously & overflowing from her immense repertoire of recipes: appetizers, main courses, desserts, especially her famous cheesecake that would make a baker shudder with envy. And she always remembered your favorite item. Voila, there it was.

Then, there was her love of the Yankees. Oh those Yankees! She and my Mother Lila (Marie her dearest friend) would be on the phone cheering (hopefully) for the next hitter, or home run, or out, or stolen base. And if it didn't go as they were hoping? Beware. The TV was on, then off, then on again as the drama on the field unfolded. It was “Aunt” Marie's passion!

Now for us, it is silence & distance that is our heartbreak.

But for “Aunt” Marie it is the gift of golden silence, a gentle breeze, warmth & comfort, the beauty of a peaceful life that envelops her forever.

All in her honor — a well deserved glory & magnificence that we cannot begin to imagine. She is at peace, embraced in the loving arms of those in another world. She is home.

“Aunt” Marie —

We love you dearly, & will miss you forever — Claire & Wendi
