“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Marie Guido. I knew her daughter Lisa, we were close for a while. I remember spending Easter dinner at The Guido residence is Staten Island. Marie was a kind and welcoming host, I only ever heard Lisa speak with love and admiration of her Mother. Sending my love to Lisa and the family and my condolences from Wayne Standaloft xxx

“ “With a heavy heart and disbelief... I want to say what was amazing about Marie.... everything. Her compassion, strength and love can only be measured “second to none”. My friend, Lisa had a love for her mother that cannot be matched. Lisa used to speak of her mother with such love, I could feel it. Even though where has been so much time that has pasted that we haven’t spoke - the Guido family will always have a place in my heart. They, she (Lisa) was significant during a very difficult time 4 that”

“ Cousin Marie & Tony's house was always a lot of fun as a kid. There could be anywhere between 5 and 20 kids there on a given day. Whether we were in the pool, running around playing or exploring the woods that used to surround their house, Marie's house was a lot of fun.

One New Year's eve we showed up at 1am, everyone already asleep. Marie put on some coffee and got the party started again. Things were simpler then and times were good.
