“ I will always remember the good times we had growing up in Brooklyn. Our mothers were sisters and as cousins we spent a lot of time together. We had a wonderful grandmother who we all loved and I am sure she is now reunited with her mother, my aunt, and our grandmother in heaven. May her family find comfort in the knowledge that she lead a wonderful life and her family always came first. She will be missed.

May you rest in peace my aunt. Our hearts are heavy with your passing. My parents are heartbroken and you will be dearly missed. You were not my aunt by blood, but you couldn't have been more of an aunt to me. Such a beautiful person, such a strong woman. I'll always remember you smiling and caring about everyone. And your laugh... I can hear it now and it makes my heart smile. We always knew our birthday was coming because your card was the first to arrive! You never forgot a birthday and we always felt so special. Thank you for being my aunt, I will miss you. See you soon 💕

My beautiful Aunt Marilyn, truly the best Godmother ever. My heart is sad. It's surreal to see your picture here and to be writing this. I will miss you so very much. I loved and love you so very, very much. I can still hear your voice, "Hi hon, it's Aunt Marilyn...". I can still see your beautiful smile and can still hear you singing happy birthday - always the first one to call :-). I'm so glad and grateful that I got to hear your voice this past birthday; it's hard to believe it was the last time. I cherish the times we talked and visited and still hear your beautiful and kind words to me, so precious and special. Thank you for always being there and for always being so happy and caring and loving. Thank you for being a woman of faith, such a great example. I have comfort knowing that while we feel the pain of losing you, you are no longer in pain. I know that you are resting safely in the arms of Jesus and that I will see you and hear your voice again someday. I love you forever.
