

Mark J. Mazzuki

May 24, 1966 - February 5, 2021

Mark J. Mazzuki, 54, of Staten Island, New York, passed away on February 5th after a long battle with cancer. He fought for over 4 years with courage, persistence, humor and total faith. A beloved husband, father, son, brother, and friend, Mark was loved by many.

Born in Staten Island to Robert and Patricia (McKay) Mazzuki, Mark moved to Bradenton, Florida in 1990 when he opened a printing company with parents. After teaching himself graphic design, he established his own graphic design business and developed into a talented Creative Director. He later owned his own publishing company, Marlin Media Publishing, with his friend, Linda Carrigan. He deeply loved pottery. He was the current President of the American Art Pottery association and designed the acclaimed JOURNAL for over 20 years. In his spare time, he loved to travel, play tennis, and collect pottery.

He was a kind and loving spouse to his wife, Leslie, with whom he was married for over 32 years, as well as an amazing father to his daughter, Victoria. Mark's favorite saying was "be kind," and this was exactly how he chose to live his life.

He is survived by his wife Leslie A. (Marcario) Mazzuki, daughter Victoria L. Mazzuki, his parents Robert (deceased) and Patricia (McKay) Mazzuki, parents-in-law Lawrence (deceased) and Rosemary (Grimaldi) Marcario, brother Michael and Suzanne Mazzuki, sister Suzanne and Carmine Bruno, sister-in-law Linda and Stephen Wells, brother-in-law Lawrence Marcario, and his loving nieces and nephews, Joseph Marcario, Jacqueline Bruno, Christina Bruno, Nicole Mazzuki, Carmine Bruno, Jr., Michael Mazzuki, Jr, Nicole Marcario, Stephen Wells, Elizabeth (Wells) Broome, and Jeffery Wells.

A person so special, so kind, caring, and talented, cannot have their life summed up in a few words. He will live in our hearts forever.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Mark's memory may be made to the American Cancer Society in his name.
