“ Dear John and family
Martha was always a ray of sunshine. Smart, funny and strong. I will always have the fondest of memories of Martha growing up. No matter how much time passed, Martha always treated me like I just saw her the day before. Welcoming me with a big hug and a kiss on the cheek. Martha was absolutely one of the very best friends my mother Barbara ever had. May you all rest, knowing that you and everyone who loved Martha now has a new guardian angel.

“ Dear Aunt Martha, You were such a big part of my life growing up. Our time together heavily influenced the woman I am today. Your sense of humor was ever present. Your curiosity, daring and drive ensured that you would be successful in whatever you did. From wallpapering a hallway with 14 foot ceilings to fixing a dripping bathroom sink, you were always up for the challenge (and that was well before Google). When you were done with the heavy work, you were transformed into a fashionable and stunning lady. I'm blessed to have known you in both childhood and as an adult. You will always be my funny Aunt Martha. I hope you are at peace, running around Heaven, touching up the woodwork and redecorating where its needed. God bless the Ramunni family. May your heavy hearts be soothed by the knowledge that Martha is with her mom and Vinny.
