“ *Dear Terry and family,
Although I couldn't be there physically, please know that I was there spiritually. The loss of a parent under any circumstances can tear apart the fabric of our lives in ways that leave the human heart in a grip of sorrow no other can perceive and a trial of suffering which may seem unendurable.*

Those same trials have taught me that, in times such as these, time and silence are the only medicines. The only true comfort is that one day we too will have our turn as well, depositing our bodies and our essence in a similar place, will have a joyous meeting with those we have loved and lost and whom we shall still love and never lose again. God bless you and your family and support you under your heavy affliction. So sorry for your loss.

*With sincere condolence
and sympathy
