“ Mary, You were a Guardian Angel to all of us who were lucky enough to know you as we were growing up. I cherish the memories from Six Flags to Muller's Park and the block parties on 4th St. in Brooklyn. They were some of the best times of my life! I am so grateful to have known and loved you for the past 50 years. You are in the arms of the Angels now resting peacefully. May God comfort and keep you. Until we meet again... Love, Hugs and kisses forever! Andrea Baby...

My Dearest Aunt Mary, My memory of you was of your kind gentle soul. From the first time I met you, you were this beautiful glamorous dancer who gifted this seven year old her satin costumes and elegant high heels. You put them in a small red suitcase, which I still can see in my thoughts. As the years passed, we spoke on the phone and your first words were always "Bunny how are you"....and that's how you lived your life, always with concern for your family before all else. I was blessed to have you in my life with your dignity and grace. Chris, no Mother could have asked for a more loving and fierce defender as you have been through the challenges of the past few years. You have inherited Aunt Mary's best qualities and I'm so very proud of you. Love, Bunny
