“ There are so many memories I have of Mary Ellen:
Her favorite striped leggings she wore in the 70's...well before their time.
Her birthday song sung in perfect harmony every year on my birthday.
Her first fishing trip when three of us ladies fished from a skiff in Boston Harbor and caught 88 flounder. It became an annual tradition though we never caught that many fish again.
Her infectious laughter at funny stories we would tell as we sat around drinking wine and having cheese and crackers.
The nursing home residents she would touch with her beautiful singing.
My favorite earrings that she bought me for my 50th birthday.
The time we arrived at our ski rental late at night and in her inimitable fashion walked right up to the door, walked in and then discovered it was the wrong house!
There are so many more, but I will keep them in my heart and smile each time I think of her. Love you Mary Ellen. God Bless.
