Mary was one of the most talented women you could ever know. From her irresistible cooking and baking, her sewing and gardening, there was nothing she couldn't do! She was strong willed, tough, and a care taker to so many. She had a caring and nurturing soul. But mostly she loved her family. There wasn't a time she wasn't talking about her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. They were her world!

Mary was preceded in death by her husband of 69 years Joseph Maggio and son Santo Maggio.

Mary is survived by her two loving daughters Mary Ann Costello and Angela Maggio, two son-in-laws Patrick Costello and John Maggio, and daughter-in-law Carolyn Maggio; grandchildren Kathleen Gulko, Kimberly Urso, Jennifer Guiher, Jeanine Traborse, Nicole Maggio, Karen Maggio, Patrick Costello, Jolene Meskovic, Victoria Maggio, Jeffery Weiss, and LeaMarie Weiss, their spouses Frank Gulko, Al Urso, Tim Guiher, George Trabolse, and John Meskovic, and her 10 great-grandchildren.

She is loved by many and will be terribly missed.

Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, there will be no formal service at this time. She will be laid to rest at Resurrection cemetery. A memorial mass will be planned for a future date.

“ *Gram, what can I say that hasn't been said? You were an amazing woman up until the very end. I will miss spending time with you, I will miss your stories, I will miss your cooking.. I'll never forget the story of how you met grandpa on the train and how much you both loved each other. That love taught us all so much about marriage and family. Thank you for all the years of laughs and love around the table with pizza, pasta, lentils, and of course red wine. Thank you for loving all of your grandkids and great grandchildren so much. Your unconditional love for grandpa and the care you gave him and your son emulates the amazing woman you were. I love love love you my Grammy, I'm going to miss our visits and our hugs.
