It is in Pawling where she met her husband to be, James J. Sheeran. They were married at St. John the Evangelist Roman Catholic Church on November 30th 1947. Mary's Grandfather (Fredrick B. Clum) and Grandmother (Mary Anna Clum) owned a hotel named the Amenia Inn located in Amenia, New York. As a young girl she would help her grandparents in the summer doing chores around the hotel. She loved sharing her stories and many memories of the hotel with us.

Mary had many hobbies such as gardening, knitting, reading, cooking and baking. She was the Best at all of them. Her and Jim would always make time for traveling. The family would spend their summers in Pawling, New York and Montauk, Long Island staying with family having a great time creating many memories. She loved spending time with her many grandchildren and great grandchildren, she had a heart of gold.

Mary was a very easy person to respect and love. She was a Beautiful, Loving, Caring, Understanding, Graceful person. Her love was totally Unconditional. Every morning you could find Mary praying giving thanks to God for herself and others, her prayer list was a mile long, always praying for other people's needs. Some people would call her Saint Mary and to us she will always be Our Saint.

“ Mr. and Mrs. Sheeran were like a 2nd set of parents to me since I lost my mom in 1967. Mrs. Sheeran always had a smile and a warm welcome. I was friends with their son Jimmy and I loved visiting with them. I truly loved them both. Your friend always, Michael Downing.
