“ She is now at peace in Heaven.A quintessential home-maker and good neighbor,wonderful wife,mother,grandmother,and friend to many.in her life.We Italian and Irish Americans have lived side by side for so many years in Huguenot.Truth be told; we hated each-other and loved each-other at the same time. However,we always respected one another and our children went to the very same schools,churches and places here on Staten Island.Eventually many of them intermarried to create the most beautiful looking people the world has ever seen,...the Irish-Italian American !

“ I remember Mary as a kid in the early 1960's ,growing-up in Huguenot.Way back then,the town was sparsely developed and her home was painted gold and only one story.She had a big family and was a very nice lady and all the neighbors liked her.I was truly shocked to hear she passed away suddenly at age 78.Many of my childhood friends still in the neighborhood said she was so energetic,nice and slender, and the picture of good health;always walking and caring for her grandchildren.I moved away many years ago and know a lot of people on that block and surrounding area have passed-on as the years have rolled by.I wish her husband,Bob,her daughter,Mary-Pat,and the rest of her big, Irish-Catholic, family peace and solace for the loss of their dear mother.May she now rest in peace.
