“ Dear Zito family, I worked closely with Mary Zito at AIG since 2017. I was very new to the corporate world so I would go to Mary for support planning events. She always knew what to do! And she was always so willing to make things happen, especially volunteer events that made a positive impact in the community. She will be truly missed and remembered as a remarkable colleague and friend.

With love,
Alix

“ My deepest sympathies go out to the Zito, Gambino and Cicero families. I'll always cherish the days we spent hanging out together in front of my house on 63rd street in Brooklyn with Lenore, Vera, Tina, Janet, Jewel, and Marilyn. Our summers spent going to the beach were the best! Mary, my friend, Rest In Peace.
