“ It's really hard to believe that Maryann is gone. She had the remarkable ability for lighting up a room with her laughter and warmth. Despite the physical trials she endured, she maintained a wonderful, positive outlook that was obviously a central part of her being. Because we had never lived near her and Bill, we were not able to see them as often as we would have liked. But that didn't dissuade her. It was as if she had known us all her life. She was a terrific mom, a great Italian cook, a true New Yorker, a loving wife to Bill, and a woman true to her Catholic faith. We will continue to keep her, Bill, and their entire family in our memory and our prayers.
