

MaryAnn D'Angelo

January 5, 1960 - September 18, 2022

MaryAnn D'Angelo, age 62 passed away peacefully in her sleep on Sunday surrounded by her loved ones. Born in Astoria Queens, daughter of Mary and Joseph Valentik, she is survived by her husband George of 38 years, sister Rosemary, sons Matthew and Michael, daughter-in-law Christine and grandson Jackson Spike. A graduate of Mater Christi High School in Astoria where she excelled on the volleyball team, she continued her studies at Queensborough Community College in Bayside where she earned a degree in Data Processing and was on the Deans List.

MaryAnn worked on Wall Street in the Data Processing industry and was married at St. Joseph Roman Catholic Church in Astoria in June of 1984. After the birth of her first son Michael in 1987, she and her husband settled in Great Kills, Staten Island and later moved to Eltingville after the birth of their second son Matthew in 2000. While in Staten Island, MaryAnn worked as a Teller/Customer Representative for Richmond County Savings/NYCB. Along with a strong work ethic that started in her teenage years, MaryAnn had an outgoing nature, made friends easily, loved her sons, adored her grandson, enjoyed celebrations with family and friends as well as dining out and going to the shopping outlets. An independent spirit, she battled through illnesses with a smile, always saying "Don't worry, I'll be fine".
