Maryann Moschello, 82 of Staten Island, New York passed away on Wednesday, January 20, 2021, at Staten Island University Hospital North.

Born Saturday, February 5, 1938 in New York, New York, she was the daughter of the late Tony Savoia and Fay Sarno Savoia. Maryann lived on Staten Island her whole life, graduating from New Dorp High School. After graduating high school Maryann worked as a secretary for a law firm in the Woolworths Building in Manhattan, until she became a mother in 1961.

Maryann enjoyed crocheting, especially baby blankets for everyone. She was also known for making the family the best meatballs and crumb cake.

Maryann was an exceptional bowler, who has been on many bowling teams throughout her life. She was known for having a high bowling average and many perfect games. Most of all she was a devoted mother and dedicated grandmother and laughed about putting up with our father, who was her love, her sonny.

Maryann was the devoted wife of 60 years to Carmine Moschello. Loving mother to Lisa Trimblett (Michael), Robert (Dena), Linda Lancetti (Nick). Cherished grandmother to Samantha, Sabrina, Isabella, Nicholas, Max, and Mia.

“ I came across this obituary by accident and we are so sorry for missing the service . We are sending our deepest condolences to Sonny and the family. We were heartbroken to read this news. Maryann was my Moms best friend and was like a second mom to me , my entire life. Although her memory of us was faded, my memory of her will never diminish . The endless pots of coffee, her meatballs, sewing and pressing anything I needed and just being there always for me through the years. I can't speak for my Mom, but selfishly am glad she has her friend with her and know they are together.

To Lisa, Rob and Linda, there are truly no words anyone can say to help ease the pain, sadness and emptiness you feel. Losing your Mom is the hardest thing ever! That feeling of loss never goes away, but I can promise you, it does get easier over time and those tears turn to smiles when you think of her and especially when you speak of her. Always speak to her and of her! She will hear you!

Dearest Sonny, I am at a loss for words and so sorry this happened. My heart breaks for you. The love you shared is an inspiration to us all!

I hope you can find peace in knowing she will always be a part of you and with you!

Sending our deepest sympathies, strength and support! Jodi & Gary

“ My Mom was my mom, and I am a clear reflection of my mom, in how I do things, how I think, how I take care of my children, my work ethic...all the good things she has instilled in me....will never go away. I have not lived close to my mom for 20 years now, but a day doesn't go by that I don't catch myself being just like her....we hate to think "you turn into your parents someday" but it is true, and honestly I'm pretty lucky. She was one of the good ones...she had a great smile, always ready to get in there and do what has to be done, never wined, never complained....oops...I do have the wining and complaining BUT she'd tell me, you got that from your dad! and then she'd laugh....She was always there for me, no matter what. She always went over and above. That was her. I never wanted for anything, my mom always made me feel safe, loved and special. That is the truth. Even though she is not here now, my mom will always be with me, in my mind, my face, and my heart. I love you Mommy and I'm glad I was able to tell you that, and I meant it when I said you were the best mother ever. I know you heard me, cause I saw it in your eyes as you looked up at me in the ER with that horrid little blue mask on. I saw the tears in the corner of your eyes....I will never ever forget you...I love you always. Lisa
