“ My heart will never be whole again. She was my oldest and i was the youngest. She was so proud of the fact she was the oldest cousin. I treasured her and the love she had for me and my son. She became the matriarch of the matra family and our family will never be the same. Her love for us will never die and we will stay close together and she will forever shine her light on us. My cousin i will forever love you and miss you. Your baby cousin, jojo

Marianne was a wonderful person with a smile always on her face she was a joy to be around and was a sport in everything she did. She always had a kind word to say about everyone and I know she will rest in peace because she was such a good person

Maryann...I recently found out how sick you were and my first thought was Caroline and how could she handle life without her sister. You girls had each other and that gift will be cherished forever. This horrific disease that has taken you away from your loved ones cannot be explained. The only comfort that they will know is that you are resting peacefully with no more pain. I will keep you always in my prayers and hope to meet again someday. To Vinny, Maxi and my friend Caroline I will see you on Thursday. God watch over this beautiful family and keep them strong.

Maryanne, you were always there for us and now you are gone and our hearts are broken. When I needed support and guidance you gave me the strength and helped me take the right path. Your care and love with Michelle, came before your own needs. You fought this battle with so much courage and stayed positive through it all. But now, you are resting in peace, pain free. We all can't imagine what life will be without you. Please watch over us, especially Michelle. You will always be in our thoughts and prayers, and our love for you will be everlasting. Love you, Anne-Marie, Peter, Michelle and Jaclyn
