

Maureen Kramaroff

February 8, 1951 - March 12, 2024

Maureen Kramaroff ~ age 73, passed away on March 12, 2024, long time resident of Great Kills. She was pre-deceased by her husband Steve, her son Michael John, her parents William and Eileen Holtz. She is survived by siblings Billy Holtz, Kathy Esposito, Nancy Strype and Maryellen Holtz; Godson Michael Cafaro; nieces and nephews Kim, Danny, Jason, Chris, Michael, Nick, Robert, Joseph, Shannon, Jessy as well as 11 great nieces and nephews.

Maureen was a strong woman that found the strength to go on after her son passed away although it was a struggle. She cherished her son's memory and loved to talk about him. Not long after Michael John passed away, she felt blessed to meet Pope Benedict XVI @ Yankee Stadium.

She worked as an Assistant Vice President of Citibank until she retired. Maureen was a very colorful person; she always wore red lipstick, had a love for pop culture, dressing up flamboyantly and kooky. She was an avid fan of TV and movies; and truly enjoyed discussing them. She loved to play games even though she had to be convinced to play. Maureen was close with her friends and always looked forward to going out to eat with them. Above all Maureen truly enjoyed spending time with her family.
