

Michael T Bugliaro

October 27, 1962 - January 10, 2025

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Michael T. Bugliaro, 62, of Staten Island, who passed away on January 10, 2025. Michael was born on October 27, 1962, in Brooklyn, New York, to the late Thomas and Joan Bugliaro.

Michael was a devoted father to his son, Michael, and a proud grandfather to his beloved grandson, Michael, who brought light into his life. His love for his family was unwavering, and he cherished every moment spent with them. He worked for many years in the construction industry before transitioning to Amazon, where he worked until his retirement.

The tragic loss of his son on July 1, 2023, profoundly affected Michael, and his heart was never the same after that day. Though his grief was immense, his love for his family remained steadfast. He continued to try to find joy and comfort in the presence of his loved ones and friends. Michael was deeply devoted to his two sisters, Lisa and husband Craig and Michelle, with whom he shared countless cherished memories. He is survived by his nieces, Alexa and Brittany, and his nephews, Matthew, Christian, and Danny, all of whom he loved dearly.

One of Michael's greatest joys was his love for all animals, especially his beloved pitbull, Bella. Bella was by his side when he passed, a testament to the unwavering companionship they shared.

Michael was known for his love of life. He had a playful spirit, a love for music, and a knack for bringing people together. Whether it was dancing at family gatherings, sharing a cocktail, or simply being his silly self, Michael knew how to create a good time. His laughter, jokes, and infectious energy will be missed by all who had the pleasure of sharing those moments with him.

Michael is survived by his loving family, and his memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew him. He was a man who lived life to the fullest, cherished his loved ones, and never missed an opportunity to bring joy to those around him
