“ Michael's mother and my mother were sisters. Michael was born one year before me. Our first childhood years were often spent in our grandmother's house on E. 7th Street, NYC or in his mother's apartment where there was an enormous quantity of comic books piled in the entrance. We spent hours together reading those comics. I only have good memories of that far off past and of Michael who was almost like a brother.

The years separated us. I was abroad for many years. It is reassuring to see that he had a loving family. He lives on in our memory.
