“ We are so very sorry for your loss. We will miss his arrival letters in Ocean City, always signed “your cousin Michael”. Every year he was so thoughtful leaving snacks for my family and tickets for rides and mini golf for my sons. It was always so kind and thoughtful, and made me smile. We are thinking of all of you....Cousin Denise and The Stassi Family

“ You were quite the character in a profession full of characters. A good sense of humor is must to deal with the day to day grind of the Corrections world. Thank you for taking it easy on us as a supervisor. Your presence at our facility will be surely missed. May God comfort and watch over your family. Rest in peace Mike.

“ I can't believe you are gone it is such a shock.. I remember our last conversation at work about how you were going to Staten Island to be with family and friends... (playing poker) a tradition u have done for awhile. U were quite quirky but such a great guy and you always had our backs no matter what. You will be missed something terrible.. to your family I am so sorry for your loss, he was taken way too soon.

“ Michael lifted me up at all times...he was not just a nephew but my friend. I looked forward to his many calls. He called me faithfully. Our last conversation he told Uncle Andy and I how much he loved each of us! We had plans together to have a joint project assembling details of our Irish heritage and ancestors. Now he had joined them in Heaven and we will miss every day.

“ Michael was the "little guy" of my brother Joe's five kids, and I was Uncle Peter. He was always the most talkative and curious of the lot. An extremely friendly guy, and we had great phone talks about his father and his mother. He was very thoughtful, a great conversationalist who always found something kind to say.

“ Last summer, I went to Uncle Andy's and Aunt Anne's beach bungalow and, fastened to the refrigerator, was a note signed "Your cousin, Michael" to our younger second cousin, Denise.....just letting her know their was food in the refrigerator and clean sheets in the washing machine! This was Michael.....he loved his wife, children, grandchildren and siblings AND he extended that same love to all his family...even his cousins, aunts and uncles. Caring about family members, and nurturing those relationships was his specialty....especially his devoted, hours-long phone calls with his Aunt Anne. RIP
