

Michael A. Loffredo

September 21, 1943 - May 6, 2026

Michael Anthony Loffredo

September 21, 1943 - May 6, 2026

Born on September 21, 1943, in Red Hook, Brooklyn, he lived a long and meaningful life marked by love, loyalty, humor, and an unwaveringly positive spirit. He was a devoted husband, a loving father, and a proud grandfather.

Michael, also known to many as Mickey, was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York. He met the love of his life, Mary, while temporarily home from the United States Army, continuing to stay in touch through mail. Soon after his return, the two were married on June 1, 1969, building a beautiful life together, 56 years of marriage, and together settling in Great Kills, Staten Island, where they raised their two daughters, Wendy Andruzzi and Christie DeNatale. His love for his family was immeasurable, and he took great pride in being a grandfather to his grandchildren, Alexa, Louis, Gianna, Christopher, Skyla and Nicholas. Michael is survived by his sons-in-law, Louis Andruzzi and Christopher DeNatale who both became like sons to him in every way that mattered. Michael is also survived by his sister, Patricia, and was predeceased by his sister, Toni and brother, Anthony, and his parents, Louis and Josephine Loffredo.

Mickey dedicated years of service in Manhattan working for E.F. Hutten & Co., as a manager of the stock record department then as a specialist at Depository Trust Company until he retired in 2002. His unwavering loyalty, and strong work ethics were always evident. Mickey also enjoyed his friendships built through his time working and commuting daily.

Outside of work, Michael embraced life with enthusiasm and joy. He was a fan of all sports, but he especially loved the New York Jets and remained a lifelong fan and loyal supporter. He was fun and lively, and he had a wonderful sense of humor that brightened the lives of those around him. He enjoyed a great meal, and a nice cocktail. He especially treasured time spent with his family, noted for his Sunday dinners, along with his wife they would put a delicious spread of food on a Sunday table, and having their family and friends over to enjoy.

Mickey and his wife Mary enjoyed vacationing, very proud to have cruised 26 voyages besides many vacations to Bethany Beach, Delaware, Florida, the Caribbean and Europe.

His legacy will live on through his family, who will forever cherish the memory of his family values, gentle spirit and unwavering kindness.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at 9:45 AM on Tuesday at St Clare Church located at 110 Nelson Ave Staten Island, New York 10308. Interment will follow in Resurrection Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.
