“ Will miss you Uncle Mickey. I remember seeing you walking all over Staten Island when I was on my bus on my way to work. You were always so active and dedicated to anything you put your mind too! Also, I will never forget all our family holidays at your house and all the fishes you and Aunt Mary always cooked at Christmas time. Those were such wonderful family memories. I will miss your sense of humor and beautiful smile. Watch over all of us now. Will love and miss you always!!!

“ My memories with Mickey my brother-in-law are so many and what laughs we had on our cruises. He loved the trips we took all over Baltimore, Bethan Beach and the most crazy one was when we had a picnic with the children and he was so excited to make the coffee and asked Mary where the coffee was she thought he packed it. Mickey threw the pot in the air and couldn't believe he couldn't have his coffee right away. He was a perfectionist when it came to organizing and such fun to be with. Easy going with any trips. Outings, cruises. Loved family and fun. I miss you Mickey we had such fun and definitely memories . Irene LaRocco
