“ Mike: You were one of the most down to Earth people I've had the pleasure of knowing not long enough. He was quick-witted and intelligent but always a man of humility. Anyone who knew him well would be proud to call him their friend. There was a strong passion behind his words in any given situation revealing a deep introspection into all things of the human nature. There are so few words that do the justice of describing what he brought to the world without sullyng the complexity of eloquence, honesty and tact he commanded. You will be sorely missed, my friend. Rest in power
