“ Dear Sweet Mike- will not soon forget your kind, gentle nature and sweet and funny demeanor as you shared your generous (and quirky!) personality with your USACE-NYD family. You brightened our days, esp those of us stored away in the Pink Ghetto, with your stories about your adventures and your pride in your beloved family (esp your son). Rest in peace, dear friend- God Bless and Keep You- Jenine

Dear Mike, we will miss you tremendously, you were a kind, warm, loving and compassionate man. You loved your family and your granddaughter and Daughter in law so much and they loved you right back❤️

You were such a BIG MET FAN! So From now on when I see the Mets on TV I will think of you💙we will keep your memories alive as we do with your son Mike. We will remember all the good times we had together. I know you son Mike welcome you home with open armed. So now rest free of pain with your son Mike for all of eternity, we all love you n will miss you. Love

Terry and Ralph xoxo 💋

Until we all meet again 🙏💔🥺🙏
