“Losing our father is one of the most difficult things we have gone through.

As I am standing up here today, I realize how fortunate we were to have him as our father.

No words can assuage the grief and sorrow our family is feeling. We are in denial that our father has passed on.

But knowing he is now with the love of his life, our Mom Anna, does in some way aid in easing our pain at this difficult time.

I know for sure our mother was waiting for him at the gates of heaven with outstretched arms greeting him to the kingdom of God. They will finally be together forever.

There are not enough words to express his influence in everyone's life who was fortunate enough to get to know him. To know him was to love him.

This larger-than-life man was known as the “gentle giant” and the “cool Dad” amongst anyone who knew him.

My father was hardworking, strong, loving, and gentle. He loved his family, pets and was deeply devoted to my mother, two sisters and especially his four grandchildren, Alexandra, Daniel, Gabriella, and Annabella.

It was through his examples growing up that we learned how to be caring and generous. My father was always willing to help, whether it was a neighbor in distress or a family member no matter what the situation was.

He showed strength and love right up until his last days with us. He truly was one tough individual.

I hope that one day, when I die, my family and friends can look back, tell funny stories about me, and talk about how I loved them, because the measure of a man is not how much he loved others, but how many loved him. Then, like my father, I will have led a complete life.

Father you will be greatly missed by all. The void you have left can never be filled.

Go now father and hug our mother for us and tell her that until we are all united we all meet again.

Love eternally,

Your Son Michael
