

Nancy A. Pandolfino

May 26, 1948 - July 3, 2025

Nancy Pandolfino Suarato, beloved daughter, wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, great aunt as well as a friend, passed away surrounded by the love of her family.

Born to Joseph and Clorinda Pandolfino, Nancy was a cherished sister to John and Joseph, and was preceded in death by her sister Angela and beloved husband Dominick Suarato, with whom she shared a life full of love and family.

Nancy was the proud and loving mother of Michele, Peter, Donna, Toniann, Gina, and Dominick. She was also the treasured grandmother of 17 grandchildren and the adoring great-grandmother of 14 great-grandchildren as well as 3 great great grandchildren. Her family was her greatest joy, and she gave her heart fully to each and every one of them.

She dedicated many years of her life working at New Dorp High School, where her warmth, kindness, and bright smile touched the lives of all who knew her.

Nancy had a deep love for dancing, treasured spending time with family and friends, and always carried a smile that lit up every room. She had one of the warmest hearts and a spirit full of joy and compassion. Her legacy lives on in the love she gave so freely and the memories she created with all who were blessed to know her.

She will be deeply missed and forever remembered with love.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered on Tuesday at 10:00 AM Holy Child Church, 4747 Amboy Rd, Staten Island, New York 10312. Entombment will be in Woodbridge Memorial Gardens, Woodbridge, NJ.

The family will receive friends from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM and 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM on Monday, July 7, 2025, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

“ Hey Nan, I was thinking back when i lived down stairs for a few moons and would like to Thank you for having the patience of a Saint , even when caught off gaurd in a slight state of shock or possibly fight or flight .lol eithey way , you handled it like an Angel and never was able to give you the big ups i always had for you or never knew how to articulate to you. As i think back now , i must of drove ya alittle nuts once or twice, and you handled it with a1 Class, understanding and grace, even while folding cloths down stairs , with bounce fabric softeners and all, (or tide) and simultaneously juggling the evey day. I deeply with all my Heart want to Thank You and let you know i appreciated you and wish i could of sat down and told you that in person. I know you deserved that. And when you bump into Unc ,or Unc's , let them know i love and miss them all and never forgot a thing. R.i.p aunt Nan.. ❤️.

“ We are all so heartbroken that you are no longer here. You meant the world to us and were more like family! We love you and will miss you. We are relieved that you are now out of pain and with the Lord and reunited with Donny and all loved ones who are in Heaven. We feel terrible that we can't be there today. You will always be in our heart and memories! Until we meet again....Love the DiGennaro family “ Sending my sincerest condolences to the family. Nancy was a wonderful person, a true professional that always greeted you with a smile.

I always admired her tireless and dedicated work ethic. She always got “ the job done” It was always a pleasure to work with her
May she rest in sweet heavenly peace

Seek comfort in the beautiful memories she left with you

It is with great sadness for the loss of a sweet ,gentle soul, I send my prayers.
