“ To our wonderful friend who was like family. You will be missed always. I remember you coming up every night from doing the eyeglasses and we all have coffee and cinnamon buns. You were a 50's song bug and told me about the song My Darling Lorraine. I loved it. RIP our dear friend.

“ As I sit here and think about Nick on Super Bowl Sunday I think back to sitting outside the shop on Fort Hamilton Parkway with Nick playing football with the pigeons... Nick would fill a cup with dry cat food and we would try to pick out specific pigeons as our receivers and see who could complete the most passes all while talking about life's issues (Better than any talk therapy you could receive with a “professional”) ... Nick was an incredible man with a huge heart. He was definitely a voice of reason and a father figure to so many in the neighborhood... No matter what was going on Nick was always there with a sympathetic ear and some good advice... He did so much for so many in this life and he should be greatly rewarded in the next life. Though I've only seen him a handful of times in the last 20 or so years I can say that the impact he had was lasting and the lessons he taught will carry me through a lifetime. God bless you Nick!!! You will be greatly missed!!!

“ There are too many wonderful memories to list. We worked together, shared family gatherings, took vacations, and many other enjoyable events. Nick and I spent many Saturdays at Football games throughout the 5 boroughs. We rode the Cyclone and ate at Nathans any time we had the urge to hit "The Hill" He was there for everyone when they needed a helping hand. I can go on forever listed the times you helped people. I was proud to have you as a friend even though you never introduced me as just a friend. Love always your "Nephew, Godson, Son" Anthony
