“ Dear Maria and family ,
I'm so saddened to hear about uncle nick (dapper Dan) i would call him and my dad. They were so handsome. I have such fond memories of our parents friendship throughout the years all the dinner parties , yard parties and all there travels . your dad always had a smile that would light up a room . May he rest in peace. 🙏 they're probably looking down with black coffee & anisette and pastries . ❤️ xo Melinda

“ Just heard the sad news from my sister Maria I'm very sadden and happy!!Nick is again reunited with his bride,What can I say it would pages so I'll keep it short and sweet.I spent my teenage years with that family.Nick always treated me like a his son. Never forget the first time I met him he scared the shit out of me sunglasses driving his Cadillac But a short time later realizing the guy a true gentleman and like my second father to me during those years.The one thing I'll never forget about him and I'm talking 50 years ago He always stayed calm even in the worst times and turmoil.I was amazed by that I finally asked how can you stay so calm he answered me(Why worry what's going to happen will happen) I told him he'll live to 100 I was close .Marie you are wonderful daughter we all should pray we have someone to take care of us during our golden years I love you RIP NICK TO MEET AGAIN GOD BLESS

Loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather and friend. A kinder man would be hard to find! This world has suffered a tremendous loss. They just don’t make them like Nick anymore!
My deepest sympathy to Maria, Frankie and family. Know that I will always be here for you.*

“ Dear Uncle Nicky, thanks so much being part of my life as my godfather. You have been an inspiration to me as a role model as a loving father and kind soul. I have many great memories of how you were there for all of us as a family. Aunt Janet and you always had kind and loving support for me growing up and for that I am grateful. I was very blessed to have adults in my life like you to learn from and be mentored. Many of life’s lessons came from the godfathering you provided. Blessings and love, you will missed. Love, John and LeAnne and family.

“ Uncle Nicky, My heart is saddened with your passing. Looking back over the years there are so many memories of countless vacations, holidays, and just any day get togethers. Dropping in for a quick visit was always a warm welcome. As I grew older I realized that this was not the norm in many families but how fortunate I was to have this and you in my life. As I started my own family, my children and my husband were lucky enough to share in that special bond. We will treasure the joy and laughter we shared over the years and miss you beyond measure. Rest In Peace with all of our Angels ❤️

“ My dear friend Maria. This post is not something we wanted to see. Mike and I are so very sorry. Your dad was a one of a kind. You gave him the strength to push on and try and beat his illnesses. You my friend have been his rock! You have been by his side throughout his last years and before. A better daughter is not to be found. You were blessed to have him till his golden years.

Now he's your guardian Angel but more than that he's once again with your beautiful mother. Together they are young and free once again.

Love you my friend. Be strong 🙏❤️🙏

“ Cousin Nick was not just a cousin but the warrior of the family. A veteran of the Korean War he was the last of our family Great Generation and Nicky lived his life the same way Anything you needed he was always at the front of the line to pitch in.

All of our family holiday meals were split between the Jacovini & Di Tommaso families. You knew you were at one of our holiday meals because inevitably you'd head pure Sicilian being spoken throughout the meal and eventually Nick was the afficianado in making a perfect espresso made in the pot that came from Sicily. Perfect ending to the meal.

Nicky was loved by anyone who had the pleasure of meeting him. He immediately made you feel like he knew you forever. Cousins Nick & Jeannette were the happiest when family & friends came over.

Nicola you will be sorely missed by us all. We know though that cousin Jeannette has been keeping a place for you right next to her. Now you can rest after beating all those odds throughout all these years. You battled hard & won many a fight. Now keep looking over the family & keep everyone safe.

Cousin Maria you did as much as any person could do over all the years dad needed your help. You are now the new warrior. Nicky as much as you made everyone feel comfortable at home I'm sure the good Lord will put you in charge of hospitality. A perfect mix.
