

Nick J. Cutrone

October 15, 1960 - April 23, 2025

Nick is survived by his beloved wife Marie, his loving sons Nicholas and Anthony; daughter-in-law Christine, and by his siblings Annamaria Aigotti and Joseph Zitfel.

Nick grew up in Brooklyn NY with his mother Anna Cutrone his sister Annamaria his brother Joseph and extended family. He came from humble beginnings and moved to Staten Island as an adult. He raised his family there and his career as meat manager lasted for more than 25 years at Pastosa in Eltingville. Nick acquired many friends, devoted customers and colleagues at this location who admired him for his strong work ethic.

He prided himself on taking the time to speak to his many customers and coworkers with kindness and consideration of their needs. He was treated as family there and will be missed by all that knew him. Life will not be the same without him in this community. We are at peace knowing he leaves us followed by an outpouring of love, kindness and respect from all that had the privilege of knowing him and spending time with him. We are certain that he is safe and at peace now.

A Memorial Mass will be at 10:00 AM on Saturday, May 3, 2025 at Holy Child Church located at 4747 Amboy Road Staten Island, New York 10312.

Burial of Ashes to follow at Oceanview Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.

“ I have not been in the store. Since I heard about Nicks passing. Im lost for words and feel numb. I can't imagine not seeing Nick. When I go to the butcher shop door. Knock and no Nick smiling saying hey buddy. What can I get for you. It doesn't seem real. He touched so many people in so many ways. I will miss you buddy. My deepest sympathy to Nicks family. And his family at Pastosa. RIP NICK

“ In my many years living on the east coast, I cherished all the fun times spent with my cousin Nicky, at many family gatherings and holidays. He was always upbeat, kind, and generous, and had the biggest laugh in the room. I am glad I got to spend some time with him in recent years, even though our visits were few and far between. I know he's at peace now and has left behind many good memories with me and my family.
