“ For all who visit this page, especially family members who unequivocally disregarded a third son are absolutely disgraceful. As parents there is something we naturally hold in our hearts called "unconditional love". Difference, grudges, stubbornness are all there, but to ignore the fact of a third son is truly appalling especially at the time of death. As a parent myself, the true meaning of "unconditional love" I hold close to my heart. I'm extremely happy to know I've broken a family trait; I will always love my children no matter the circumstances. May GOD have pity on your souls.
