

Otto Hoydal

April 28, 1942 - July 26, 2018

Otto Hoydal of Annadale passed away at home on Thursday morning after a long and courageous battle with cancer. A resident of Annadale for the past 40 years, Otto was a self employed master carpenter and framer, having framed and built numerous homes on the Island through the years.

Otto was a true outdoorsman - he enjoyed hunting, gardening and spending time out doors at his Upstate home. He was a member of the Sons of Norway.

He is survived by his loving wife Linda (nee Miller). His children Leif, Tove Bakken, Hilde Dragland, Lise Galestro and Andrew. He was the devoted grandfather to his 10 grandchildren and his 6 great grandchildren. He also leaves behind his brothers Leif and Asbjorn and his sister Sonja Noras.

A gathering of family and firends will take place on Friday from 2-4 & 7-9 p.m. at the John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals. Funeral services will be conducted in the Funeral Home Saturday morning at 9:30 a.m. with the Rev. Garry Squire Officiating. Interment will follow in Pinelwan Memorial Park.
