“ Tragedy has an unnerving way of knocking us off our feet; and to that end the words are hard to find. Now with time on our side and a clearer mind, our thoughts become more lucid.

Mama, we miss you tremendously.

Your quiet but powerful presence has guided us for more than three decades. Your foresight led our family to “America” that summer of 1984. Our accomplishments would not be possible without the tireless support and love from both you and Mami.

We are forever grateful.

Always in our hearts and minds.

“ We will miss Panufuva so very much. Our family gatherings just will not be the same. Panufuva was a pillar of our family. Although he came in a small package, he was filled with so much grit, determination, and conviction. Fuva would sit silently with us until a thought provoking subject came up and the fire within the man would awaken and he would transform into the fiercest debater we ever laid our eyes upon. This we will miss the most! A giant in our eyes. May he rest in peace and may God bless his soul.

“ When I think back to the important events in my life, Panu Kaka has always been there. I met my wife in NJ because of his dedication to his community. My engagement ceremony in CT, my wedding in London, when we purchased our first home in CT, after the birth of our Son in CT, after the birth of my Daughters in VA, our Son’s Janoi and his high school graduation celebration. There have been so many other events. Countless times with Kaka in Staten Island, I saw his faith in God, his love of family, how much he believed in hard work, the can do Patel spirit and his willingness to help others without hesitation. His guidance and the many discussions we had has helped me tremendously in my life. Kaka’s smile, wit and laugh is something I will miss greatly. What an amazing journey he travelled this lifetime and what a great example he was in the way he lived his life. Kaka will be greatly missed. Jai Sri Krishna, Jai Swaminarayan.
