

Pasquale Sileno

April 10, 1943 - December 19, 2017

Pasquale (Patty) Sileno of Great Kills and formerly of Eltingville passed away on Tuesday morning surrounded by his loving family. Born in the Little Italy section of Manhattan, Patty worked as a pressman for the New York Times, retiring in 2007. He was a very proud man, working numerous jobs to help support his family, so his wife Sonia would be able to stay at home and take care of their 2 daughters, Elena and Diana. Tragically Sonia passed away in June of 1992 and Patty raised two young daughters on his own, making sure he was at every dance recital, every ball game and all other events that his daughters were a part of.

He was a loyal and true friend, and would meet his with his childhood friends, at Gateway Park, where they would talk, play cards and plan their annual trip to Florida.

Most of all he was a devoted family man, especially to his grandchildren who he doted on, his two grandsons Joseph Schoenfeld and Aiden Lemmy and his two granddaughters Sonia Schoenfeld and Sarina Lemmy. He was the proud father of Elena Lemmy and Diana Sileno. Loving Companion of Lillian Maratea. He is also survived by his sister Angela Cosentino and was predeceased by his brother Anthony.

A Celebration of his life will take place on Thursday from 2-5 & 7-9PM at the John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals Inc. 28 Eltingville Blvd. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated for him at 11:00AM Friday at the Church of St. Clare 110 Nelson Avenue. Cremation will be private.

“ Uncle Patty was a dear family friend as my brother Joseph and I were growing up with Elena and Diana. He was a great father and truly would do anything for his family and friends. I will cherish our childhood memories forever. May he rest in peace. XO Jennifer Sardone

“ Pat always has a smile and a great laugh. It wasn't always easy being a single parent, but Pat stepped up and was both a Dad and Mom, even to my kids. And what a great job he did. I will miss not seeing him at the beach. He loved everyone. Rest in peace my friend.
