“ How happy are the memories of uncle Pat, who was so close to us as we grew up in New York City. He was always making jokes, laughing, and making people smile - teasing everyone and being his loving and warm self. He made our Christmas special in New York - getting that special tree with my father on Christmas Eve. The parties for New Years and Thanksgiving, all the happy music and the dancing... all the family was together laughing and smiling. I will always remember his warm smile and his loving eyes and caring words - asking "How are YOU? Take care of yourself, and don't forget that I love you." I will miss you uncle Pat more than you know. I wish I had the chance to see you one last time and to hug you. Love always, Vickie.
