“ It is with great sadness that my wife Rose and I offer our sincere condolences to Artie and the family for the recent loss of Pat. We have been friends of theirs for some 70 years. I first met Pat at a church dance in 1955. She was a great dancer and I learned how to dance better because of her. She then invited me to a house party, where I met Artie, Pat’s sister Agatha and others including Tony Fantaci. Later that year, Tony introduced me to his sister Rose, whom I later married in 1960! Today, we have three children and four grandchildren. So because of Pat, our family was created! Pat was a wonderful person and we pray that she is now in heaven.
