“ Paul was a good friend from high school who found my own best friend for me when he was a baby kitty. I wasn't going to get another cat, but he convinced me. We used to talk on the phone or text every few months, and we last texted when he was in the ER at the end of October. He was a good guy who knew how to make the best of everything and find the good in everything and I will miss him.

Dear Paul, I am so fortunate to have known you for the past couple of decades (longer)

I am blessed to have met you at the Chicago reunion, along with the rest of the gang. You were the best.

You can go on believing what you want, but I know the truth as does everyone else who really cared about him . Good riddance to you Diane. You can't hurt him anymore.
