“ It was with a sad heart when I heard this news. I remember Paula as one of the 'cool' moms growing up on Ellsworth. Being neighbors, Joe and I would play all the time together and Paula would watch myself and my brother when my parents were not home and we would do the same for when Paula was not home - although Stacy being oldest would have things under control :). Paula definitely loved to travel and whether it was going to the beach or taking us all to 'Trilobite Hill' it was always laid back and fun (was that station wagon a Town and Country? - because we had some fun adventures going places in the back!) . My condolences to Joe, Stacy, family and friends.

“ So sorry for your loss. This woman that always found humor in every little thing had a way of keeping her family together. She reminded me how valuable family is , the importance of loving one another , making time for the ones you love and helping when you can. I really admired how she lived. Such a humble person.

*You will not be forgotten Paula!
My condolences to you all!*

“ As Stacy's new neighbor I only met Paula a few times but I always felt like I'd known her forever! Being a fellow New Yorker we had a lot in common...Her lively spirit and sense of humor were infectious!! She was generous and kind and I could tell she adored her grandchildren! It was also clear how proud she was of Stacy and Joe! I will miss her and I barely knew her so might heart goes out to all of you who had her for a lifetime! Marianne Riggins
