

Pauline P. Siravo

May 5, 1936 - October 4, 2018

Pauline Siravo of Eltingville passed away on Thursday October 4, 2018 surrounded by her loving family at Staten Island University Hospital South. Pauline lived in Eltingville for 53 years where she and her late husband James, who passed away in 1999, raised their family. Pauline worked for Metropolitan Life Insurance Company as an Administrative Assistant.

Born in Brooklyn she graduated New Utrecht High School. She was a die hard Brooklyn Dodgers fan until they left Brooklyn and they took her heart with them. Pauline was very active in Holy Child Parish, where she was a member of the Rosary Society, and helped yearly with their Christmas Fair, She was also a member of the Mount Loretto Friendship Club and the Richmondtown Historical Society, where she took great pride in donning the vintage clothing of the period. Additionally she was President of the Tony Bennett Fan Club. A very social and friendly person Pauline could often be found having coffee with friends at the Burger King on Richmond Avenue and Amboy Road most mornings.

She is survived by her son Sebastian (Sonny) Siravo, her daughter Roseann Siravo, her daughter in law Bernadette Siravo, her grandchildren; Dean, Matthew, Sierra, Chelsea, Douglas, Scott, James and the late Keith.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered for Pauline on Tuesday October 9th at the Church of the Holy Child beginning at 10:00 AM. Interment will follow in Resurrection Cemetery where she will be laid to rest with her late husband James.

A gathering of family and friends will take place on Sunday from 6-9 PM and on Monday from 2-5 & 7-9 PM at the John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc. 28 Eltingville Blvd.
