

Phyllis Cosenza

October 18, 1934 - February 6, 2017

Phyllis Cosenza, 82 of Eltingville, passed away on Monday, February 6, 2017, at Staten Island University Hospital South.

Born Thursday, October 18, 1934 in Brooklyn, New York, she was the daughter of the late Peter and Angela Canzoneri. She was also predeceased by her beloved husband of 38 years, Louis, who passed away in 1995.

Phyllis was deeply devoted to her family, especially her grandchildren. During her children's early years, she was actively involved in the PTA and the Holy Child Drum and Bugle Corps. As her children became older, she began work as a Retail Buyer for Navy Exchange in Brooklyn and later in Staten Island until her retirement. Throughout her life, she enjoyed sewing, crocheting and cooking. Later in her life, she became an avid Yankee fan and loved to watch the games. The time she cherished the most, though, was time spent with her family especially on holidays, where everyone shared her infamous eggplant parmigiana.

She is survived by her daughter, Patricia Mastellone and her husband Michael; her son Peter Cosenza and his wife, Jennifer; her brother, Frank Canzoneri and his wife Rae, her 3 grandchildren, Michael Mastellone and Christopher and Catherine Cosenza; and her nieces and nephews, Christine Moscato, Frank Canzoneri, John Cosenza, Lisa Calicchio, Tina Marie DiMasi and Patrick Carbone.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday at Holy Child Church located at 4747 Amboy Rd Staten Island, New York. Interment will be in Resurrection Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.

The family will receive friends from 2-5 and 7-9 p.m. on Friday at The John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd. (at Eltingville Station), Staten Island, New York.
