

Phyllis Fattibene

February 17, 1938 - February 15, 2018

Phyllis Fattibene, 79, of Great Kills, passed away on Thursday, February 15, 2018, at Staten Island University Hospital South.

Born Thursday, February 17, 1938 in Manhattan, she was the daughter of the late Anthony Imperiale, the late Mario Campanella and the late Sarah (Cohen) Campanella.

Phyllis was a caring and loving mother, grandmother, sister, sister-in-law and aunt to many who dedicated her life to her family. Everyone who knew her loved her - she touched so many peoples lives and made a lasting impression on them. She will be truly missed.

Phyllis was predeceased by her beloved husband, Michael Fattibene. She was also predeceased by her brothers, Arthur "Goo" Imperiale and Robbie Campanella.

She was the loving mother to Mark Fattibene and his wife Debbie and Michelle Ericksen and her husband, Richie; dear sister of Joel Campanella and his wife, Denise and Anne Marini and her husband Leon; and devoted grandmother to Nikki, Jacki, Pete, Toni, Richie, Michael and Marc. She is also survived by her "furry friends", Oliver and Sasha.

A Funeral Service will take place on Sunday at 11:00 a.m. at Woodbridge Memorial Gardens in Woodbridge, New Jersey. Entombment will follow. On Sunday the procession to the cemetery will depart the funeral home at 10:15 a.m.

The family will receive friends from 2-5 and 7-9 p.m. on Saturday at The John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd. (at Eltingville Station), Staten Island, New York.

“ Aunt Phyllis, you always would say "It is not goodbye, it is see you later," so I will see you later. You were always such a joy to be around; a bright, bursting ray of light. I will never forget all the memories I have with you especially when I wound up shopping with you and my mom and you put on quite the fashion show with an assortment of hats. I love you, forever and always. Love, Your Lissa
