

Phyllis V. Galvin

August 9, 1940 - August 31, 2017

Phyllis V. Galvin, 77 of Eltingville, passed away on Thursday, August 31, 2017, at Staten Island University Hospital North in Staten Island, New York.

Born Friday, August 9, 1940 in Brooklyn, New York, she was the daughter of the late Philip and Lucy Ferrarotto. She worked at David Hamberger Window Displays in Brooklyn and also worked at ABC News as a key punch operator for many years, retiring in 1997, at which time she settled in the Eltingville section of Staten Island.

Phyllis was an animal lover, who over the years, had many dogs and cats who she loved taking care of. She enjoyed sewing and crocheting - and in earlier years, she would sew clothing for her daughter. She also loved listening to music, her favorite artist being Perry Como.

She is survived by her beloved husband of 56 years, Eugene; her loving children, James Galvin and Kathleen Syvertsen; her dear son-in-law, Norm Syvertsen; her dearest siblings, Nicholas Ferrarotto and Lucille Marra; and her cherished grandchildren, Matthew and Taylor Syvertsen. She is also survived by many loving nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephews.

A Funeral Service will be on Tuesday at 10:00 a.m. at The John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc. located at 28 Eltingville Blvd. (at Eltingville Station) Staten Island, New York 10312. Interment will follow in Ocean View Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.

The family will receive friends from 2-5 and 7-9 p.m. on Monday at the Funeral Home.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in Phyllis' memory to The Staten Island Animal Care and Control would be greatly appreciated.

I will miss you very much mom. i will miss the phone calls where I would tell you something the kids did wrong and you would say 'don't you yell at my grandchildren'. I know how much you loved them and they loved you. I wish I could hear your voice one more time. you are at peace now and in God's embrace.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I am going to miss my sister very much..Our gossipy phone calls, complaining about the crazy things our husbands have done, etc. Most of all, we all have fond memories of our Christmas Eve's together. Especially breaking out the Christmas China and having to wait till after midnight to open presents and have sausage and peppers.

Love,

Lucille and Sal
