“ Phyllis and my mom, Ann McLaughlin, were very good friends. They shared happy memories and good times together at Bally Bunion. My mom has been gone since 2009, but I recently thought about Phyllis and how good she was to me during my mother's illness. Rest in Peace and my condolences to her children and family.

“ I met Phyllis at the Bally Bunion in Bay Ridge, Brooklyn several years ago. Always a smile on her face and such a wonderful woman. I am thankful that she introduced me to her daughter Nancy, who I am blessed to have as a friend, as well as Nancy's husband and children, such a great family. Phyllis, you will be missed, but we will keep your memory alive always. May you rest peacefully.
