“ Just happened to learn of Phyllis's death by following a Bay Ridge page on Facebook....I am so shocked so very sorry to learn this very sad news. Phyllis and I were both French teachers...she also taught my brother and sister at Mckinley. I also taught at Mckinley much later...I replaced Florence McBarron. Then I got married and moved to Georgia....Phyllis and Joe were at my wedding...Then she had Joseph jr. and I had a son Harris...I divorced and would come back to Brooklyn to visit my parents and Phyllis and I would take our little boys to the park to play. I know that I am rambling, but I am so disturbed by the news...She and I were very close for a while...I remarried and she came to visit in Georgia one summer....my husband and I had a blast taking her around Dixie.....

My heart goes out to the family...Memories of good times have been flooding back to me....I hope everyone is well...know that I am thinking of all of you and that I remember her very fondly, as I do Joe and Joseph. May her memory be a blessing for all who knew her.

With love and affection,
Andrea Rich Estroff

“ I am former student of Mrs Russo, she taught me French at McKinley J.H. Brooklyn 1963/1966. I truly Loved her, she was the great Person Teacher and Friend. After I graduated I would visit her at Marvel were she workedShe was Truly Beautiful Person n Side and Out and so Beautiful her Red Hair Sparkling eyes and Smile that Lite up the class room. In fact she gave me a gift R for my first name Roberta. I have always thought of her all through the years. I am so sorry for your loss. I wish I had looked her name up tell her in person. I'm from Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish, right next to St Thomas. I am happy she had a son Joseph and you Mr. Russo. I know she is watching us from Heaven with all the Angels. God Bless You Both Mr Russo and Joseph. Roberta Gallinaro Scandaglia.
