“ Grandpa, it's been a little over 10 months since you left us and it still feels like yesterday, like a nightmare I can't wake up from. The pain does not stop and you are on my mind every day, I often dream about you and have been doing so a lot lately. Are you trying to tell me something? I don't know. I will continue to look for any signs you are near. I feel your presence with me when I need it most. When I had surgery in September, I knew you were there and watching over me, as I believe you are every day and are with all my family. Johnny misses you tremendously too. He loves to talk about his Peepaw. He was so proud of you as his great grandfather and happy to know you were so proud of HIM and all his accomplishments. He just turned 12 on Saturday 3/19 and I know you would be shocked to see how much he's grown and how wonderful or a young man he is becoming. I wish you were still here to talk baseball with us, how much we loved it, whether it was the NY Yankees or Johnny's baseball team. He's playing in 2 leagues consecutively right now Grandpa! You'd be so impressed and proud like we are, and he misses telling you about it. I miss talking Yankees baseball with you, ARod announced his retirement Wednesday after the 2017 season. I know you had forgiven him just like me. You and I and my son (and well maybe daddy) are probably the only ones in the family that have forgiven him lol I was hoping we'd win the 2015 World Series for you but we just didn't have it, maybe this year. I wish we could talk, I wish I could still hear your voice. I can hear it in my mind still, but would love to call and hear it for real just one more time. I still talk to you and I hope you can hear me, I believe you can, I believe you can see us and I believe you are watching over us wherever we go. Please one favor Grandpa, please please watch over and comfort daddy somehow, he misses you so much it breaks my heart. Once in awhile just let him know you're still around. Let him feel your presence the way I do. Ok I am going to go now, but we will meet again one day, save a seat for me until I get there and we are reunited with all our family. Hug my Papa Martin for me and tell him how much I miss him and all our beloved family members we've lost throughout the years. We are taking care of Grandma but I know you know that. Thank you for being the man you are and instilling all of the amazing man you are into my dad because I have the best dad out there and that is all because of you and the type of man you were. Our hearts are forever broken, and you are so loved and so sorely missed, but we will see you again. Until then...Rest in the sweetest of peace Grandpa, the pain and suffering is gone but you put up an amazing fight but it was time for you to rest and go be with God in comfort and peace even though we were not ready for you to go. Selfishly because I am human with such a big heart I wanted you to stay here but my heart knew you could not and I could not stand to see you suffer anymore. Until the day we meet again, I will always love and miss you and can't wait to see your handsome face and beautiful smile again. Please continue showing me the signs I have been seeing, comforting me and letting me know you are still with me and are always around. I love you Grandpa!!!!!! 11/03/1924 - 6/12/2015 Forever in our hearts. Love, Dawn & Johnny

“ Dad, you were strong and fought a good fight but in the end God felt it was time for you to join him in heaven. While we are sad and miss you here on earth there will come a day when we will see each other once again. The bible tells us this and we believe it. We will take care of each other until God determines that it is our time to be with you again. Thank you for all you taught me in life. Thank you for being the kind of father I try to be to my family. Mostly thank you for being my father To me that was one of God's greatest gifts he gave me. Love you Dad.... Your son John

“ Dear Minnie, John, Denise and Anna, Please accept my sincere condolences at this time of grief. I just read this on facebook and was quite upset. Ralph was such a grand person. I know he is smiling with our Lord right now and asking Him to help all of you. I am so sorry. We've lost such a wonderful person in our family. Love, Cousin Josephine and family from Chivcago.
