“ Through thick and thin Regina and my mother Irene were the best of friends. They spent years living apart and when we moved back to NY it was like nothing had changed. Regina was the most dedicated and strongest mother I have ever seen (I guess that is why they got along so well). Her kids were her life and it was obvious to anyone who ever met her that they came first. She put their needs before her own and sacrificed so much to give them everything she could. She raised 3 beautiful girls with loving hearts that reflect the type of mother they had and her only son who served his country, NYC, and is as dedicated of a father as his mother was. I thank Regina for always being there for my mother and giving her a home away from home. You will be forever missed and my prayers are with RJ, Geralyn, Toniann, Alyssa, Mike, Alessandra, Reese, and Olivia.
