“ *I met Regina when she was a neighbor of my friend Bettyann Murray My son Gregg Blackhall played with Regina"s sons when I came over to visit Bettyann.. I was newly divorced and working fulltime when Regina offered to drive Gregg to religious instruction because "I'm going there anyway." A small gesture, but it helped so very much. She had a great sense of humor and a big heart, and I never forgot her kindness. May God rest her soul and bring comfort to her sons (who she loved so much) and their families.
