

Restituta Pagano

July 29, 1939 - January 22, 2021

Restituta Pagano, 81 of Huguenot, passed away on Friday, January 22, 2021, surrounded by her loving family.

Born Saturday, July 29, 1939 in Brooklyn, New York, she was the daughter of the late Joseph and Lucretia Barbieri.

She was the beloved wife to her late husband Frank who passed in 2012.

Restituta is survived by her loving children Dante, Frank and Maria. Her dear daughter in laws Jackie and Andrea. Her cherished grandchildren Danielle, Anthony, Lucy, Alexandria, Frankie (F.J.), and Alicia, and loving great grandchildren Esther and Felicia.

She had friends who would have done anything for her. She considered them to be family as they were there for her through all her joys, her sorrows and everything in between.

Plain and simple, what defined her life was her love of family and her friends. If she had her way, she would be with them every minute of the day.

Saying goodbye to this remarkable woman is one of the hardest things we'll ever do. But she has left us with the most amazing memories of her well-lived life.

and there are no regrets!

“ A story comes to mind when our granddaughter Lucy was 2 years old -- so Esther & Frank and Al & I tried to make a recording of the story , The Night Before Christmas , - each of us had our part in the script. Well unfortunately, our production was a flop. We just didn't rehearse enough or was it the bottles of wine were too much! We certainly had a lot of laughs that night.
Esther, time to rejoice and walk peacefully hand and hand with Frank. You will be missed.
