“ Whenever Richie (my brother-in-law) was in the neighborhood where his in laws and I lived (Queens) he would always stop by. He would always bring a raw egg, from Brooklyn, and ask me to fry it. Being a newly wed my cooking skills weren't great so I always told him to bring it to our mother-in-law or I told him to sit on it and maybe the heat from his butt would cook it. We went through this same scenario for years. He was such a funny guy. Whenever I make a fried egg I will always think of him. I'll miss you, Richie. Love you, Ann (Ferguson) Eager
